

Trustee with Independent / Third Sector experience: person profile
Essential	Desirable
Specific to this role
Experience of contributing to a business case for a new/expanded occupation based service within the independent sector	Experience of creating a business case for a new/expanded occupation based service within the independent sector, including identification of need and marketing strategy
Experience of holding a senior position in an occupation based service within the independent sector	Experience of establishing /managing occupation based services within the independent sector
Recent experience of delivering viable occupation based services within the independent sector	Current experience of delivering viable occupation based services within the independent sector
Involvement with financial and legal aspects of a business/service	Responsibility for financial and legal aspects of a business/service
As a trustee
A specific interest in the occupational therapy profession	Specific interest and clear understanding of the occupational therapy profession
Able to network nationally at senior levels in your field of expertise	Able to network nationally at the highest levels your field of expertise
Able to debate with stakeholders about the value and importance of occupational therapy	Able to influence stakeholders about the value and importance of occupational therapy
Able to work strategically to achieve the aims of an organisation	Experienced at working strategically to achieve the aims of an organisation

Term: three years with the extend for a further three years.

Time commitment: four trustee meetings/year (presently around the Oxford area and approximately six hours duration during daytime) and active participation in one or more Trust work streams.